THE QUEEN'S SPEECH.

HER MAJESTY'S ADDRESS READ BEFORE PARLIAMENT.

A Review of the English Forces and Their Opposing Forces--The Situation Briefly Alluded To.

The following is the Queen's speech:

MY LORDS AND GENTLEMEN:—It is with much satisfaction that I again report to the advice and assistance of my Parliament. My relations with all the powers continue friendly. The course of events since the prorogation of Parliament has tended to furnish additional security to the maintenance of our open peace on the principles laid down by the treaty of Berlin. Much, however, still remains to be done to repair the disorder with which the late order has affected many parts of the Turkish Empire. A convention for the suppression of the slave trade has been concluded between my government and that of his imperial Majesty the Sultan. At the close of your last session I expressed the hope that the treaty of Gundamuk had happily terminated the war on Afghanistan. In conformity with its provisions my envoy, with his retinue, was honorably received and entertained by the Ameer at Cabul. While engaged, however, in the exercise of their duty, the embassy were treacherously attacked by overwhelming numbers, and after a heroic defence they were almost all massacred. An outrage so intolerable called for condign chastisement, and my troops which, pursuant to stipulation, either had withdrawn or were withdrawn from the territory governed by the Ameer, were ordered to retrace their steps. The skill exhibited in the rapid march upon Cabul and in the advances upon the other lines of actiou reflect the highest credit upon the officers and men of my British and native forces, whose bravery has shown with wonted lustre in every engagement with the enemy. The abdication of the Ameer and the unsettled condition of the country rendered the recall of my troops impossible for the present, but the principle on which my government has hitherto acted remains unchanged, and while determined to make the frontiers of my Indian Empire strong, I desire to be in friendly relations alike with those who may rule in Afghanistan, and with the people of that country. My anticipations as to the early establishment of peace in South Africa has been fulfilled. The captured position of the Zulu King, and the breaking up of the military organization on which his dynasty was based, have relieved my possessions in that part of the world from dangers which seriously impede their advancement and consolidation.

In Bosutchand, a native outbreak of considerable importance has been effectually quelled by my Colonial forces while the transvaal has been freed from the depredations of the powerful chief who, having successfully resisted the former government of the country, had persistently rejected our attempts at reconciliation. I have reason to hope that the time is now approaching when an important advance may be made toward the establishment of a union or confederation in which the powers of self government are already enjoyed by the inhabitants of Cape Colony; may be extended to my subjects in other parts of South Africa. Papers on these and other matters will be forthwith laid before you.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons: I have directed that the estimates of this year be prepared and laid before you without delay.

My Lords and Gentlemen:—The commission which, at the close of the session, I informed you I had issued to inquire into the causes of the agricultural depression throughout the United Kingdom, is pursuing its labors Meantime, the serious deficiency in the usual crops in some parts of Ireland has rendered necessary special precautions on the part of my government to guard against the calamities with which those districts were threatened, and with this view they have called upon the authorities charged with the duty of administering relief, to make ample preparations for the distribuion of food and fuel, should such step become necessary, and they have also stimulated employment of labor by advances on terms more liberal than those prescribed by the existing law.

I feel assured that you will give your sanction to the course which has been adopted, where it may have exceeded the power entrusted by Parliament to the executive of the government. Proposal will be submitted to you for providing the funds required for these exceptional advances on the security of property administered by the church temporatiss commissioners. I trust you will be able to resume consideration of the Criminal Code, and the improvement of the law of the Bankruptcy bills will be laid before you for enlarging the powers of the owners of settled lands for consolidating and amending the lunacy laws, and for simplifying the practice of conveyance. I command to you these and other measures which may be submitted for your consideration, and I trust that the blessing of Almighty God will attend and direct your labors."

Lords Beaconfield and Salisbury were not present at the opening of Parliament. The Queen's reception by the crowd in the street was very enthusiastic.

Seats to a few of the Royal procession brought heavy prices.

DAILY PROCEEDINGS OF THE SENATE AND HOUSE.

SENATE.

A motion by Senator Davis, of West Virginia, that when the Senate adjourns to-day, it will be to meet Monday next, and was opposed by Senators Hoar and Paddock and advocated by Senator Allison and others, the former urging the backward state of the business before the Senate, and the latter claiming that the business can be better facilitated by the work in committees than in the Senate at this stage of the session. The motion was defeated. Yeas 17, nays 32.

Senator Beck gave notice that he would object to any bill being taken up out of its regular order on the calendar.

After some discussion the Senate adopted the resolution submitted yesterday by Senator Anthony, that the Senate shall each day proceed to the consideration of the calendar of general orders. The debate to be limited to five minutes on the objection to carry any bill over. The Senate thereupon proceeded to consider the calendar, and the first bill on the calendar was the bill to prohibit the military interference at elections.

Among the bills taken from the calendar in regular order was one reported from the committee on military affairs in December to donate a quantity of granite to aid in the completion of the soldiers' and sailors' monument at the Chalmette National Cemetery at Louisiana. On the objection of Senator Teller, of Colorado, it was laid aside.

The bill to amend the census act of 1879 was then taken up. On motion of Senator Pendleton a substitute was reported by the Census Committee was considered instead and passed.

Senator Harris, by request, introduced a bill for the erecting of a public building at Oxford, Miss. Referred.

At 7:40 the Senate went into an executive session, and when the doors were re-opened, adjourned until Monday.

HOUSE.

The House passed the Senate bill for the conversion of national gold banks.

The following bills were introduced by O'Connor, of South Carolina, and referred: Making silver certificates receivable at the United States Treasury in redemption of circulating notes of the issue of National banks. Requiring the Secretary of the Treasury to pay current interest on all registered United States bonds, without respect to date of assignment or transfer.

The House then resumed consideration of the bill regulating the removal of causes from State to Federal courts.

HOUSE.

The morning hour having expired without action on the bill, Mr. Deann, of Arkansas, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported a bill for the establishment of titles in Hot Springs, was ordered printed and recommitted.

The Senate amendments to the House bill for the erection of a public building at Danville, Va., were concurred in.

Mr. Ryan, of Kansas, presented a petition in favor of granting railroads the right of way through the Indian Territory, was referred.

The House then resumed the debate on the revision of the Rules, when an animated debate ensued between Frost of Missouri, and Cox of New York. Mr. Frost said that the latter and other eastern representives were prodical in voting appropriations for the improvement of eastern rivers, but were parsimonious when western rivers were concerned. Mr. Cox denied that New York had ever been niggardly in its treatment of the Mississippi valley. He had voted for the levee system and for the Eads jetties. After some further discussion between Messrs. Cox and White, of Pennsylvania, Mr. Frost withdrew his motion and Mr. Cabell's amendment was lost.

No other business of importance being under consideration, the House adjourned.

Senate Confirmations.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The Senate to-day confirmed the nomination of Benjamin Conly as postmaster at Atlanta, Ga., and rejected by a vote of 42 to 10 the nomination of John M. Morton as Collector of Internal Revenue for the First District of California.

To Launch off at High Water Tide

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—The brig "Castalia" from Galveston, ashore at Highlands, is well up on the beach. The wreckers were at work on her yesterday and expected to float her at high water.

Death of Ex-Secretary Borie.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—Adolph E. Borie, ex-Secretary of the Navy, died this morning. He died at his residence here at half-past 3 o'clock this morning in the 71st year of his age. He had been in ill health for a long time, and his demise is attributed by physicians to a general breaking down of his system.

Opening of Parliament by the Queen.

LONDON, Feb. 5.—The weather this morning is fair, and promises to be favorable for the procession and ceremonial attending the opening of Parliament by the Queen to-day.

The weather is fine. The procession preliminary to the opening of Parliament took place in accordance with the programme already announced. The Queen arrived at the House of Lords 10 minutes past 2 o'clock noon. Upon receiving a copy of the speech from Lord Cairns, the Lord High Chancellor, Her Majesty, handed it back to him, and, as usual, Lord Cairns read the speech. The ceremony lasted fifteen minutes.

Foreign Matters.

LONDON, Feb. 5.—The Times has the following from Berlin: "The National Zeitung's Vienna letter asserts that Austria has firmly resolved to increase the defense of that empire, and the military authorities consider it advisable that Buda Pesth be fortified. The necessity for the immediate construction of new fortifications is unanimously recognized."

A Times Berlin dispatch says it cannot be denied that a conservative majority no longer exists, and the government will soon have to rely upon the support of the National Liberals, which fact will certainly have some influence on the development of the church question.

A Rome dispatch states the college of Propaganda will give £7,000 to the relief of Irish distress. A number of the morning papers, in their leaders, agree in the opinion that Irish and Afghan affairs will receive a large amount of attention during the coming session of Parliament.

At a meeting of the Dublin Mansion House Committee yesterday, Lord Mayor Gray stated that at the rate it had been expending it, the funds on hand would not last more than four weeks.

Kellogg's Case.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—It is alleged that the Democratic members of the committee on privileges and elections will report in favor of unseating Kellogg and seating Spofford. At first it was understood that they would merely declare the seat vacant, and leave both Kellogg and Spofford out, but certain influences, it is said, have been at work which have brought about a change in the programme. There is as yet no official confirmation of this.

"Old Zach."

Speaking to a Michigan man who is well acquainted with the late Zach. Chandler, he said: "When Grant landed in San Francisco old Zach. had a man there to welcome him on Chandler's behalf. Grant said to this man in his first conversation: 'Mr. Chandler is in the best position now to run for President of the United States as the Republican candidate. His record as a party man and executive officer are the best. His locality is the best. He is the nestor of his party along the great lakes.' 'Chandler,' said my informant, 'had become seized with this idea, and in his vigorous business way, was beginning to lay the ground-work to be nominated for President. He had a good record on the money question. His personal honesty had never been impugned. He had plenty of money and only one child already married.'

"Was Chandler very fond of money?"

"Yes, he was fond of money. While it was a passion with him to make money, he was conservative about it. For instance, if he were to be offered twenty-five per cent. for his money, he would not take it. 'Ten per cent. is all I am entitled to,' he would reply, 'and I suspect any business scheme which undertakes to pay more than ten per cent.'"

The candidates for the office of Indian commissioner are increasing at the rate of four or five a day. Secretary Schurz received a well-drawn application from a citizen of Ohio, who encloses a pamphlet copy of his biography and a photograph as a sample to show what sort of an individual he is.

The Massachusetts Republican convention will meet at Worcester, April 15th, to select delegates to the national convention.

TILDEN NOT A BENEDICT.

HE CONTRADICTS THE RUMOR OF HIS APPROACHING MARRIAGE.

Miss Fanny Ranck of Lonisburg, Pa., the Lady in Question, Also Makes a Personal Statement.

New York Star.

The line of the Tildens is not to die out, if newspaper marriages of the late Presidential candidate to various ladies have any effect on perpetuity of race. And if he really fell into the humor of it and married all the brides provided for him, even his millions would not pan out magnificent dowries, and he would almost rival Solomon in the extent of his marital relations. The social world was (presumably) electrified and agitated to its most exclusive centre yesterday by the publication in the city dailies of a seemingly authentic report that Mr. Tilden was to be married this week. The report stated that:

The marriage of Mr. Samuel J. Tilden, of New York, and Fanny Ranck, of Lonisburg, Pa., will take place this week. Miss Ranck is the accomplished sister of J. M. C. Ranck, a prominent member of the Scranton bar. She and Mr. Tilden, it is said, first met at the Centennial Exhibition in Philadelphia. Miss Ranck is represented as a good-looking brunette, in the prime of life. The lady's relatives speak freely of the forthcoming marriage, and speak of it as a certainty.

So much circumstance and detail were certainly calculated to convey the impression that this time, at least, Mr. Tilden's future fate was assured. The old and young maidens, who have had their "caps" set for the winsome and shy millionaire, were very indignant when they heard the report, and acting unanimously, without concerted agreement, dressed themselves in sackcloth and threw ashes over their lovely tresses. All hopes of being a mistress of the White House were flung to the winds, and jealousy reigned supreme. Murray Hill agog with excitement, and nothing was talked of but Sammy Tilden's wedding. Only a few believed the story, however. The brokers on Wall street hardly knew how to class the report; one of the shrewdest laughingly suggested that the Presidential aspirant probably had another surprise in store for the speculators, and that by capturing the "Queen of the coal regions" he had perfected a corner in anthracite. Some of the believers in the marriage based their corroborative theories on strange pieces of evidence. For instance, one gentleman, a capitalists, Wall street magnate, who has been a friend of S. J. Tilden for many years said to a Star reporter yesterday: "I will tell you the reason for thinking that there may be something in the report. Not long ago Mr. Tilden and several other moneyed men purchased a tract of land on Stormy Hill, Orange County, this State, and made arrangements for building a large hotel. In place of a hotel a handsome private residence has been built, fitted up splendidly and extravagantly furnished thoroughout, but no one has yet taken, or announced possession. It really looked like Tilden married and settled."

The reporter called on Mr. Charles N. Jourdan, Treasurer of the Third National Bank, and asked him if he had read the article. Mr. Jourdan is a very intimate friend of Mr. Tilden and knows as much of the private and personal affairs of the Knight of the Ample Bar' as any one does, and without waiting consultation with Mr. Tilden, he spoke from his convictions:

"It is all rubbish," said he, "all bosh and nonsense; and I am surprised that such a report should be published." And so saying, he departed.

Just then Mr. George Smith, private secretary to Mr. Tilden, dropped into the bank. Mr. Smith unblushingly announced that Mr. Tilden was on the rapid road to felicity and a marriage with Miss Ranck, of Conisburg, Pa. His hearers looked their thanks for the information. He was followed from the bank by the reporter.

"Is it really and actually a fact," queried the reporter, "that Mr. Tilden is positively and certainly going to commit matrimony?"

"All fudge," replied that callous young man. "Not a particle of truth in the story. I never heard of the young lady before and I believe the Governor is no wiser than I on that point."

"The report, then, has no foundation?"

"None whatever, or at most- hardly any. The Governor would not contemplate or take such a step without consulting his relatives, and I am sure negotiations could not have been carried on without my getting an inkling of them. But there's no use talking about it; it isn't so."

The reporter next headed for Grammercy Park to interview the Septuagenarian Sage himself. At No. 15 he made an appeal to the bell, which was answered by a domestic, who said he would ascertain if Mr. Tilden were in. Unconscious of the coming inflection of an interview. Mr. Tilden came slowly into the parlor. Mr. Tilden motioned the reporter to a seat, but remained standing himself. He was dressed in a black broadcloth suit. His Prince Albert coat was buttoned from top to bottom, and a "natty" choker around his stand up collar set off his slim frame. The reporter announced the object of his visit. Mr. Tilden interrupted with:

"I suppose you desire a confirmation, or authoritative refutation of he report that I am about to be married?"

Mr Tilden passed his hand through his hair, pursed up his lips, smiled and made an effort to look as young as circumstances would admit. The Star reporter admitted the justice of his remark.

"Well then," he continued, "the story is an absurd one. I never heard the young lady's name before to-day. However, the report has gained such wide circulation that I have decided to take public notice of the rumor and emphatically deny that it has any foundation whatever, and have prepared the following statement for the press:

The report is as true as about nine-tenths of the statements concerning me that are daily published—that is, not at all.

I presume that the authors of the rumors acted upon the maxim of equity jurisprudence—that what ought to have been done has in fact been done—but, unfortunately, I never had the pleasure of knowing of the existence of any such lady SAMUEL J. TILDEN.

Mr. Tilden read this answer to the wide-spread report about his supposed nuptials in a tone similar to that in which he was wont to appeal to a sleepy jury, and then stddenly ejaculated:

"It is queer how reports about old people getting married are started, isn't it. With this remark he left the room.

This emphatic denial from one of the alleged contracting parties was quickly followed by the receipt of the appended message from the lady, who in a dispatch, says:

"I am astonished at the report. I have never been in New York and never was acquainted with Mr. Tilden. I positively deny all such statements.

FANNIE RANCK."

This conclusively settles the story and puts the gossipers to flight. The unanimity and promptness of the denials of Mr. Tilden and Miss Ranck leave no room for doubt or conjecture, and rumor will have to abandon Lonisburg, Pa., in her endeavors to find a bride for Mr. Tilden.

GARIBALDI'S MARRIAGE.

The Romantic Circumstances of the Courtship of Italy's Liberator.

The marriage of Garibaldi, which has just been annulled in the Court of Appeals, took place under romantic circumstances, which are more widely known in their general burden than in their detail. Everybody in Europe is aware how, on the morrow of his wedding with Signora Raimondi, he took his departure for Caprera, and never again consented to see his wife. How the unfortunate affair was brought about only a few friends remember. It was at the opening of the campaign of 1859. Garibaldi was scouting the country between Varese and Como, and was about to give his troops the order to advance, when a handsome young lady on horseback entered the camp and requested the favor of an audience. She was the eldest daughter of the Marchese Raimondi, by a sister of the celebrated cantatrice, Signora Ronconi; and she brought to Garibaldi, on what seemed to be undoubted authority, the news of a concentration of Austrian troops, under General Urban, on the Cona route. Garibaldi profited by the advice, went through the Borgho Vico pass, and swept the Austrians past the lake. The young Iris on horseback, however, had made such an impression on his stout heart that, directly after the peace of Villafranca, he proceeded to the Castello Fino, the seat of the Raimondi family, where he was hailed as the liberator of Italy by his fair friend among all others; seeing which, on the same evening, he asked her hand from her father. It may be doubted if even a princess would not have considered such a proposal from the hero just then highly flattering. When it is added that the young lady was an illegitimate child, and the marchese an enthusiastic patriot, it will be readily understood with what pride and joy the latter at once gave his consent. Indeed, he never seemed to imagine that his daughter might see the proffered match with other feelings than himself. He hastened to announce it to the world, and fixed an early day for the marriage. Meanwhile the girl was silent and abashed, as if overwhelmed with a sense of the honor that befell her, and, as the day of the ceremony approached, she seemed to be unwell and took to her bed. Numerous friends had been summoned. The illustrious bridegroom's best man had come on purpose from the end of Italy, and the whole country was in expectation of the event. As the young lady, although she complained of general weakness, had evidently no serious ailment, the marchese insisted that, on the appointed day, she should be carried to the chapel in an arm-chair. She fainted on being brought to the altar, but the wedding took place none the less, and thus she became the general's wife. It was on the following morning that Garibaldi left the castle, on the unhappy girl's confession that she was enceinte. She has since lived in Switzerland in close retirement.

NOTES BY MRS. GRUNDY.

N. Y. Mail.

The fashionable season of 1879-80 has been one of the gayest and most eventful on record.

Mrs. A. T. Stewart has given away $100,000 in charities within the last three years.

Too many sensational features are introduced at the fashionable weddings of the day.

Young men who discard overcoats to exhibit their figure are candidates for pneumonia.

The present style of feminine hairdressing is nothing if not thoroughly characteristic.

The correct mode of illuminating the table at dinner parties is by means of wax candles.

If this winter holds out as it has begun—if, in fact, winter can be said to have begun at all—we may have a chance to test the powers of those ice-making machines that were so successful down South last summer.

In England there are over 300 kinds of bicycles. There are in that country more than 300 makers, who have invested $5,000,000 in machinery, and who pay out $6,000 a week in wages. There are in England 250 bicycle clubs, with 7,000 members, and there are in use more than 150,000 bicycles.

Strange Story of a Lead Pencil.

Five years ago a man at Hartford, Connecticut, fell and became insensible. A surgeon then found a slight wound in his body, close by the heart, and thought the man had either been stabbed or shot. A few days later, however, small pieces of black lead began to come out of the wound, and it was then concluded that in falling the point of a lead pencil which the man had in his vest pocket had penetrated the body. Probing later brought out a little wood. Monday the surgeons used the knife, and, to their astonishment, a whole lead pencil, which had been sharpened but once, was extracted. It was 5 3-8 inches long, and the wood was split in two. It had been completely imbedded below the chest and not half an inch from the heart. The man is very weak, but it is thought he will recover.

From Harnett County.

Correspondence of the News.

HARRINGTON, Feb. 4.—On awakening Monday morning we saw that the feathery flakes of the "beautiful snow" were falling fast, which continued till about 11 o'clock, when the earth was covered to the depth of three inches, it then finished off with a top dressing of hail and sleet. The ground being warm it melted considerably, being off the roads and rendering travel comparatively easy.

A marriage is booked for the 4th of March, just one month from to-day.

The county commissioners were to meet Monday, but as the weather was so bad nobody went from this section, consequently I am without news from them.

The dam between Dr. McDougald's mills on the Upper Little River washed out Monday night and cannot be repaired until low water next summer. Some of the mill ponds on the small creeks have not been full of water until yesterday this winter, so dry was the weather.

DR. CROSBY'S BLACK LIST.

AN EXTRAORDINARY MEASURE FOR PREVENTING CRIME.

An Officer of the Society says Men and Women are Shadowed---Some Instances of Discoveries.

N. Y. Sun, 4th.

Under the head of "Saloons of Infamy," the Society for the Prevention of Crime, of which Dr. Howard Crosby is President, says, in its third annual report, that in the upper part of the city, and within five hundred yards of some of the finest residences, are several resorts, apparently drinking places, but in reality vile haunts. It is added:

The bar-room proper is elegantly fitted up, with an extravagant display of glassware and crystal chandeliers, while in the rear, separated by a partition, may be found seated a constantly changing company of as motley a class of persons as can possibly be conceived. Males and females of all ages, all smoking or drinking. The singing of low and vulgar songs, loud remarks and conversation, with frequent and boisterous demonstrations of applause, create an almost Babel-like confusion. Waiters passing to and fro, their efforts tuxedin supplying the orders for drinks. Drunken and half drunken men and women, cursing and using the foulest language; an unlimited license as to conduct and decency, all point out these places as dens of the vilest character. The females frequenting these haunts are abandoned women of from fifteen to thirty years of age, variously steeped in the degradation of their calling. While the males, who are they? Mostly young men, from seventeen years and upward; not by any means of the lowest class of society, but sons of our best-esteemed citizens, merchants' and bankers' clerks, book-keepers and tellers of banks, employees of insurance offices, city, county, and State officeholders.

With a view of showing up the magnitude of this evil, an effort is now being made to unmask the personality of the male frequenters of these places, and the names and descriptions which have already been collected from quite an important share in the archives of the society.

The report says also that an effort is making to secure the names and addresses of the frequenters of gambling houses, intimating that the record may be useful for a merchant to consult in regard to an employee's character.

D. J. Whitney is the Chairman of the Committee on Enforcement of Law. He does not claim to be, he says, the agent of the society, but he simply has charge of the criminal cases, and he was, therefore, asked whether the society intends to continue collecting for its archives the names of the male frequenters of such places.

"Certainly," he replied, decidedly, "and the names of the frequenters of gambling houses, houses of prostitution, and assignation houses."

"How?"

"Our men will do it. Two or four go together, and the names and descriptions of persons they see are to be filed. It was done on Saturday, and it will proably be done somewhere to-night, to-morrow and the day after. For instance: One afternoon recently, a gentleman and a lady connected with a highly respected man—a vestryman of a prominent Episcopal church in this city. If the information that we ascertained had been used publicly, two highly respected families would have been disgraced. What did we do? We went to the keeper of the house and said: 'You must close up and get out of this neighborhood. If you cannot do it yourself, perhaps Mr. So-and-so can help you.' Mr. So-and-so was the Episcopal vestryman. The house was closed in forty-eight hours. That is the use we intend to make of the information we get. I have threatened to use the information publicly, but so far I have not had the heart to do it. If we can suppress a place quietly by using our information, we do not intend to go further, but some time we may come out with the information no matter whom it hurts, if the place is not closed. Another case: We heard that a prominent politician was a frequenter of a house of infamy. One of our men tracked him, and at length we told him that he had been watched and that he ought not to go there any more. Then we suppressed the house. We have given frequent rs a fair warning sometimes, and they have taken heed of it."

"How many names have you?"

"A good many,"

"Moore than a hundred?"

"A good many," he repeated, shaking his head.

"This has been going on some time, then?"

"Yes; and you wound be surprised to see some of the names."

"Then, if a person enters one of these public places to-night, he is watched?"

"Yes. One of our men takes note of him. Of course there are meu that need no watching. We know them—such as gamblers, men about town, and politicians."

"Say for instance, a down-town merchant?"

"If he merely goes in and comes out again nothing is done. But if he goes there two or three times under certain circumstances, he is watched, and the times and the places are noted. Then his name is got by various means, frequently by following him home."

"How is that information to be used?"

"It isn't to be used unless we think it is necessary. Say that there is a defalcation by a merchant or a clerk. If the clerk spent his money in such places our record will show it, and if the merchant did so-and-so, our record will show that. We have a case on hand now will probably end in defalcation. A cashier is gambling. He lost money last week in a gambling house—more than his weekly salary amounted to. He can't go on that way long. We may tell his employer what is going on, but the chances are that we will be abused for our pains. I told a man once that one of his clerks was gambling, but I don't think I'll tell him again."

"Speaking of defalcations, did you have the record of B. C. Bogart, the Secretary of the Produce Exchange?"

"We did."

"Is this information that is collected to be used in suits for divorce."

"No, sir, not under any circumstances, nor for any consideration. That reminds me of another case. A lady came to me—a highly respected lady—and with tears in her eyes asked if I could prevent her husband from following his course of ruin. He was a down town merchant, and he occasionally went on sprees, and would not return home for three or four days. With $500 or $1,000 in his pocket he would get intoxicated and stay away from home, and none of his friends could take him away from those places. What conid I do? Mothers have come to me about their daughters; but I can do little for them, except send the girls to the House of Mercy."

"Do the concert gardens, so called, in the Bowery come under the head of "Schools of Infamy?"

"We are not paying much attention to the frequenters of these places. No respectable clerks, salesmen or merchants go into those places, except to satisfy their curiosity. What we are trying to suppress is the fountain head."

"Is this information to be used to forward the ends of justice, if necessary?"

"No sir."

"Not if there should be a case like the Annie Downey case in Prince street, where it was not necessary to know who frequented the house?"

"No, sir. Our records are to be our property, and they are not to be used except for the prevention of crime. By warning merchants, clerks, bookeepers, and officials, married and single, who by spending their money to support places of bad repute, to keep away from them for their own good, and then compelling the keepers of the houses to clear out, we expect do some good."

"Anybody who may enter the one of the "Schools of Infamy," and continue to do so for any length of time, will be watched and put on record."

"The probabilities are that he will."

"Even if a man goes there on legitimate business?"

"He may. It might happen that a man by entering the place a few times in succession, but with no more desire than to gratify his own curiosity, would get on the record."

"Take, for instance, a man who should find it necessary to enter one of these places in in order to get some information concerning another person—a friend, enemy, or employee—staying a few hours and talking with the frequenters the first time, and going out with a woman for the purpose of obtaining information to a restaurant or elsewhere, the second time; would his name go on the list?"

"The chances are that it would."

"And the names of persons who have been in such places recently are on the list?"

"They are, but who the persons are I cannot say at present."

SOME INTERESTING FACTS.

Relative Intellectual Activity of Different Regions as Shown by Their Postal Business.

The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial furnishes these rather queer statistics, which tell their own story: Under the postoffice law the salaries of postmasters are fixed according to the cash receipts of each office. They are divided into classes, each class having a certain fixed salary, variable according to receipts. Under the law of postoffices, the receipts of which entitle the postmaster to $1,000 or over, are called presidential postoffices—that is, the President appoints the postmasters. When the salary is less than $1,000, the postmasters are appointed by the postmaster-general. The list of Presidential postoffices in each State reveals some curious facts. Under the latest apportionment there were a good many additions, particularly in the western States. The business and intellectual growth of the western States, as shown in the number of Presidential offices, is something enormous. For instance, Illinois stands second on the list, having 162 postoffices, the receipts of which are so large as to make them Presidential postoffices. Here is a list, embracing a large number of States:

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1. New York | 192 | 15. Minnesota | 46 |
| 2. Illinois | 162 | 16. Kentucky | 28 |
| 3. Pa. | 133 | 17. Neoraska | 26 |
| 4. Ohio | 113 | 18. Virginia | 25 |
| 5. Mass. | 109 | 19. Georgia | 24 |
| 6. Iowa | 100 | 20. Colorado | 21 |
| 7. Indiana | 72 | 22. Tennessee | 17 |
| 8. Wisconsin | 62 | 23. Alabama | 17 |
| 9. Kansas | 55 | 24. N. C. | 13 |
| 10. Missouri | 50 | 25. S. C. | 13 |
| 11. California | 49 | 26. Louisiana | 18 |
| 12. Connecticut | 49 | 27. Arkansas | 9 |
| 13. Texas | 44 | 28. W. Va. | 1 |

There is much in these figures that is very suggestive. Nebraska, with but one member of congress, has twenty-six presidential postoffices, while Tennessee, with ten members of congress, has but seventeen presidential postoffices! In Nebraska there are twenty-six presideutial postoffices to one congressman, and in Tennessee there is less than two. Colorado has one member of congress to twenty-one presidential postoffices, and North Carolina has eight members of congress to thirteen presidential postoffices. It will be noted how vastly the northern states overtop the southern states in business and intellectual growth as shown in these figures, as postoffice receipts are regarded as a pretty true criterion of the business and intellectual activity of respective localities. Even in the past eight months there has been a marked increase in the number of presidential postoffices in several of the states:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| New York increased from | | 178 to 192 |
| Illinois | " " | 152 to 162 |
| Pennsylvania | " " | 127 to 183 |
| Ohio | " " | 110 to 113 |
| Massachusetts | " " | 105 to 109 |
| Iowa | " " | 59 to 100 |
| Michigan | " " | 71 to 85 |
| Indiana | " " | 60 to 72 |
| Wisconsin | " " | 58 to 62 |
| Kansas | " " | 33 to 55 |
| Missouri | " " | 42 to 50 |
| Texas | " " | 37 to 44 |
| Minnesota | " " | 27 to 36 |
| Kentucky | " " | 27 to 28 |
| Nebraska | " " | 17 to 26 |
| Arkansas | " " | 8 to 9 |
| Colorado | " " | 12 to 21 |

This increase, it should be remembered, is only for eight months. Should the same ratio keep up for the next ten years it would work out some startling results. It will be noted that Illinois ranks next to New York, and in the past eight months has swelled her presidential postoffice list ten, while the Empire State swelled her's fourteen. Massachusetts, which is considered of slow growth, gained four, while Michigan gained fourteen. Kansas jumped from twenty-seven to thirty-six. The increase of presidential postoffices in the past eight months has never before been excelled in the same length of time.

Correspondence of the News.

ASHEVILLE, Feb, 2.—With the light of this morning came also the drops of snow, and with the snow came many glad and some sorry hearts. I see the school boys and girls running and shouting with joy, though wending their way toward that hated place, the school house. Doubtless they have in their mind the erection of a snow man before night.

Those of the human family who live in the warm regions, and know nothing or little of snows, can form no conception of the gladness that leaps in the heart of the boy or the belle when it snows.

Few incidents have occurred during the past week worthy of notice, except the fact that Chedister has a bear, I know of none, and why this is a noted incident, the occupant of the bear himself will understand. To-day, however, which is the first Monday in the month, some important land sales are to take place by the sheriff and by the commissioners. There is also to be a railroad meeting here to-day, to consider the project of building the road through Transylvania toward Walhalla, S. C.

With regard to the disposition of the Western North Carolina Railroad, under the present propositions, there seems to be a difference of opinion in our midst; most men, I believe, favor the sale of it. C.

Blaine Down in the Mouth--Twenty Thousand Dollars For the Fish Commission---Other Items.

Baltimore Sun, 5th.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Mr. Blaine was too restless and uneasy to-day to remain long in his seat in the Senate, but wandered around, picking up what news he could get from the Republican Convention at Harrisburg. Before the day was ended he got more news than he wanted. Mr. Blaine and his friends here have been very confident in the expression that he is the choice of a majority of the Republican voters of Pennsylvania, and they seemed to have an idea that, somehow or another, he would at least divide results with the Grant interest in the convention. To-night it is evident that the Blaine men are rather "down in the mouth."

General Joseph E. Johnston, in a conversation on the political situation in Virginia, expressed himself as in favor of the different wings of the conservative party of the State pursuing a policy of conciliation toward each other, and harmonizing all their differences, with a view to presenting a united front in the approaching Presidential campaign. He said every effort should be made to induce all men in the State in favor of the triumph of the National Democratic party to unite against the nominees of the Chicago Convention. He said a difference on State issues should not drive men apart when National issues of momentous import were at stake.

The House to-day passed the bill appropriating $20,000 to pay the expenses of the representatives of the United States to the International Fish convention to assemble at Berlin in April. Professor Baird will go and take his new fishing and hatching six hundred ton vessel, just built at Wilmington. He will carry experts connected with this Department, and will make no poor show in comparison with the exhibits of European nations. The delegates are to be appointed by the President.

Mr. Bayard, who is in favor of appropriating the $3,000,000 to finish four double-turreted ships, says that when he visited the British navy-yards last summer and saw the mammoth ironclad ships there—one of which cost $3,600,000—it filled him with painful apprehensions, because he realized that we have no vessels to prevent them from steaming into the ports on the coast of the United States, and in case of war would have to rely on our torpedo defences alone. He also alluded to the four armored ships built for the Italian Government, either of which would be impenetrable to the attack of any of our naval vessels, and said that one of these vessels alone cost more than the four ships our Government now proposes to finish. In his speech on finance the other day he incidentally spoke of the possibility of a war on account of the inter-oceanic canal, and this doubtlessly has stimulated his desire to see our inefficient navy improved right away.

Peter Cooper has written Senator Beck to continue his way against Kellogg-Spofford case has all been taken, and counsel will put in their briefs on Monday. The majority of the committee will be for unseating Mr. Kellogg.

The Southern Utes who arrived the other day had a conference with Mr. Schurz to-day. Ignacio is a fine-looking chief.

BEATING THE EAST RIVER BRIDGE.

The Suspension Bridge to be Erected Over the Frith of Forth.

Edinburgh Correspondence of the London Times.

The railway suspension bridge over the Forth at Queensferry will be, when completed, the most remarkable application of the suspension principle in the world. The breadth of the Forth at Queensferry is rather more than a mile; but as the viaduct is to be continued over land on the north shore for several hundred yards, the whole length of the bridge will be about one mile and one-third. The capital of the Forth Bridge Railway Company is £1,250,000. The interest on the sum, £75,000 a year, has been guaranteed by four railway companies, the largest share being held by the North British, which will be saved by the new route an annual outlay of £40,000 on account of the ferry traffic between Granton and Burntisland. A formal commencement of the work of construction was made in September last, when the foundation was laid of one of the great towers on the island of Inchgarvie. When the masonry of that tower had been carried up to high water mark, the work was suspended in anticipation of the contract for the whole undertaking being accepted and entered on. The explanation was that the bridge could not be finished within less time than six or seven years; but it is stated that it is an express stipulation with the contractors that the completed fabric is to be handed over to the company not later than January 1, 1885.

The fiery, untamed bicycle has been introduced with great success into far off Australia and New Zealand. It must be a rather charming sight to see a native New Zealender on a bicycle. Bicycles are now shipped from this country to Mexico. The next thing in order will be a bicycle tour around the world.

"John, what odor is that?"

"Cloves, love."

"But that other?"

"Allspice, my beloved."

"But isn't there another?"

"Yes, apples, belovedest."

"Just one more?"

"Raisins, my most belovedest."

"Well, John, if you'd only drink just a little brandy now, I think you would make a good mince pie."

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Prop'r.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1880.

GERMANY is to have an entirely original exhibition next April, an international fish exhibition, at which all countries are invited to exhibit the various kinds of useful fish in their streams. The matter has been referred to Congress, which is favorably disposed toward our representation at the Berlin congress. It is thought that Professor Baird, the well known ichthyologist, will be selected as our representative.

THE women of Boston polled 900 votes for school directors at the last election, and, although beaten, are not in the least discouraged. They have already organized for next year's election, and have issued an address to the women of Boston, calling on them to register, so that they can vote then. In this address they announce their intention to act with and support any political party willing to nominate women as members of the school board.

BALTIMORE stands second in exports on the list of Atlantic seaboard cities. Her foreign export trade is greater than that of Boston or Philadelphia and is exceeded only by that of New York. The growth of Baltimore as an export center has been really wonderful. Her exports for the past year exceeded those of 1878 by more than $13,000,000 and those of 1877 by more than $28,000,000. The shipments of grain from Baltimore during 1879 aggregated five million bushels more than those of Philadelphia, Boston and New Orleans combined.

JUDGMENTS AND DECREES WIPED OUT.

The Supreme Court of Tennessee has decided that all judgments or decrees not satisfied or new suits brought on the same within ten years from the rendition are fully and effectually barred from enforcement at the option of the defendant. The decision wipes out thousands of judgments and decrees, involving thousands, if not millions, of dollars. It also decided that if sufficient money is not collected by the clerks of counties on judgments to satisfy all costs of the cause, the State and county tax in the cause must first be paid in full.

EVERYTHING now promises that the Yorktown centennial, which is to take place at Yorktown, Va., in October, 1881, to commemorate the surrender of Cornwallis to Washington and the end of the revolutionary war, will be a great success. The celebration will be held under the auspices of the original thirteen States, nearly all of whom have already appointed commissioners. A formal invitation will be extended to the French government, as Washington's success at Yorktown was largely due to the French allies. The celebration will include all kinds of entertainments, and is expected to extend over a month.

A DECISION made by Judge Donohue at New York, Tuesday, involved a question of personal interest to travelling on one of the "route" tickets, of which so many are sold every summer, checked his baggage through to New Orleans at the start from New York city upon the New York Central railroad. After the baggage had passed into the hands of a connecting road its valuable contents were destroyed by an accident. Suit being brought for damages, Judge Donohue has decided that, so far as the papers show, the baggage-master exceeded his authority in checking the trunks beyond the Central road, that road is, therefore, not liable.

CHICAGO has another peculiar murder case. In the closet adjoining the sleeping room of James W. Clark terminated the service gas pipe, which was closed with a stop cock. One morning Clark was found in his bed asphyxiated, the room full of gas and the stop cock turned so as to permit the flow. A monkey wrench had been used to turn the gas on, and that wrench was traced to the premises of William Murray. The peculiarity of the case lies in the fact that plumbers will be called as experts to identify the monkey wrench of Murray as the wrench that turned the stop cock, from the marks the tool left behind. The defence is that wrenches do not differ materially in their construction, and that any other monkey wrench may be guilty.

MR. HARRIS introduced in the United States Senate last Monday a bill providing that the National Board of Health, or its executive committee, shall report to the President when any place in the United States is considered dangerously infected with contagious or infectious disease, and upon the official publication of such report, it shall become unlawful to transfer goods or persons from the place to another State, the guilty persons to be liable to prosecution in the United States Circuit Court, and the goods to be liable to seizure and destruction, unless carried in accordance with the rules made and approved by the President. These rules are to apply until the place is pronounced no longer dangerous by the President, and in the meantime the board is to make weekly reports in writing to the President concerning the sanitary condition of the place. Commanding officers of all merchant vessels entering a United States port from any foreign port or ports between the parallels of 30° south and 40° north, or upon the Mediterranean, must, upon demand, give to the customs officer bills of health, signed by the consul, vice-consul or consular officer of the United States at their ports of departure, or by the medical officer of such port, and if they do not comply they are made subject to the penalties provided in the act relative to the introduction of contagious diseases, passed June 2, 1879. When the board applies to have a medical officer detailed, and it appears to the President that a detail cannot be conveniently made, the board is to have power to appoint a medical officer, and he is to be paid out of the appropriation under the board's control. The board is authorized to confer from time to time upon an executive committee, of not less than five members, such powers and duties as are deemed advisable.

Too Much Coal--A Suspension of Operations Probable.

The Pottsville, Pennsylvania Miners' Journal, in its weekly review of the coal trade yesterday, foreshadows a plan for relieving the coal market of its present oversupply by a general suspension of mining from the 8th to the 22d of February. If this does not clean up the stock on hand another two weeks' suspension will probably be ordered in March, and still another in April, which, it is expected, will be all that is necessary to set the trade on its feet and insure a prosperous season for the rest of the year. At present the market is glutted. The Reading and the Lehigh Valley railroads, in addition to the coal stocked up at shipping ports, have each about fourteen thousand loaded cars, containing seventy-five thousand tons of coal, standing on sidings. Everything is blocked. The Reading Company has had but from seventeen to twenty-one collieries in operation this month out of fifty-five in working order, and private operations have been running in about the same proportion. Last week's shipment from the Schuylkill region was ninety-two thousand eight hundred and eleven tons, the smallest week's production for more than a year. There is still some demand for coal for mills and furnaces, but another week will supply this and then all parties will be ready for the proposed suspension.

General Grant in Havana.

HAVANA, Feb. 3.—Gen. Grant and his party visited the Vento water works, near Havana, yesterday. To-night a great tea party, followed by a ball, was given in the Palace in honor of the visitors. The principal families of the city and all official persons were invited. The Vice-Governor-General issued the invitations in the name of Captain-General Blanco. On Thursday the party will go to Matanzas and visit some plantations in that vicinity.

VARIOUS NOTES.

A boy who won't take as big a bite as he can from another boy's apple is disguising his real feelings and should be narrowly watched, lest he make a sudden grab and run off with the whole.

that the otherwise beautiful girl should have had such bad teeth. And all because she did not use SOZODONT. It costs so little to buy it considering the good it does, and its benefits stretch out into her future life. Poor girl!

A Down-town Merchant.

Having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homeopathy. That night the child passed in suffering, and the parents without sleep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby still worse; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties, and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands slept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the sudden and wonderful change, and although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering crying babies and restless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet failed to relieve the baby, and overcome the prejudices of the mother. Sold by all Druggists at 25 cents a bottle.

Cuticura

BLOOD AND SKIN HUMORS,

The Scourge of Mankind. Old Methods of Treatment and Remedies a Failure.

CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the Great Blood Purifier and Liver Stimulant, is the most searching, cleansing, and purifying agent of this country. It may be detected in the saliva, sweat, milk, blood, and urine in forty minutes after taking the first dose, showing that it has entered the circulation and been carried to every part of the system. It forever eradicates the virus of Syphilis, Scrofula, Cancer, and Canker, those terrible blood poisons that rot out the machinery of life, filling the body with foul corruptions. Taken internally in conjunction with the external application of CUTICURA, the Great Skin Cure, it speedily cures Scrofulous Ulcers and Old Sores, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, Tetter, Ringworm, Scald Head, Dandruff, and all Itching and Scaly Diseases of the Skin and Scalp.

ECZEMA ON THE SCALP.

BREAST AND LIMBS CURED.

Messrs WEEKS & POTTER: Gualemen—I cannot refrain from adding my debt of gratitude to you for having placed within my reach the wonderful CUTICURA REMEDIES, which have rendered unnecessary all further experiment of physicians, and in a remarkably short space of time have rid me of a loathsome disease. I dispensed with all physicians two years ago believing they did me no good. The CUTICURA has stopped this unsatisfactory expense—even if it were necessary and I had the courage any longer to follow their advice—and brought the long-looked-for cure and happiness.

I have been afflicted with Eczema or Salt Rheum on my scalp, breast, and limbs for five years, during which time I have been under the treatment of physicians, or at mineral springs, or taking some kind of medicine. I have been treated by Drs —— of ——, Dr. —— of ——, and visited sulphur springs and taken numbers of patent medicines, all without the faintest approach to a cure.

April 1st last, I began the use of CUTICURA, which was immediately successful in my case, entirely curing me. I have not had a clean scalp for 15 years until the use of CUTICURA entirely healed it and left it clean and healthy. The other parts of my body were affected in a more aggravated form, but are now completely healed. I believe myself completely cured. I shall continue the CUTICURA RESOLVENT as directed, for its wonderful action on the stomach and bowels and cooling influence on the blood. It will afford me pleasure, as I have done in many cases, to urge the afflicted to use these wonderful remedies.

Yours, etc.,
STEPHEN CROWELL.
NEW BEDFORD, Sept. 30, 1878.

A RUNNING SORE

CURED IN ONE WEEK.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER:—Some three or four weeks ago I ordered a box of CUTICURA for a bad case of Salt Rheum. The back of one of my wife's hands was a running sore. In one week from the day it arrived her hand was well and has remained so up to to-day. E. P. DAGGETT.
MILFORD, ME., June 10, 1878.
NOTE.—Reader, don't you think these cures remarkable?

CUTICURA SOAP,

MEDICINAL AND TOILET,

Is prepared from CUTICURA in a modified form, and is positively indispensable in the treatment of Skin and Scalp Diseases. We recommend it for the preservation of the skins of infants, for gentlemen who shave and are troubled with tender faces, for those who desire a clean and wholesome Skin and Scalp, and for all purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery. Its delightful and refreshing fragrance equals or surpasses the finest Parisian Soaps.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by WEEKS & POTTER, Chemists and Druggists, 360 Washington street, Boston, and are for sale by all Druggists. Price of CUTICURA, small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes, $1. RESOLVENT, $1 per bottle. CUTICURA SOAP, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents; three cakes, 75 cents.

A Rare Chance for Investment.

Wishing to give my whole attention to the lumber trade, in which I am about to engage on a larger scale than ever before, I offer for sale on terms to suit the times the following valuable property in Cary:

I.

MY PLUG TOBACCO FACTORY, in a BRICK building 50x80 feet, 3 stories high, the lower story being two large storerooms. The Tobacco Machinery is new and has a capacity of manufacturing 1,000 lbs per day. The factory has been worked a year, and a good beginning for a trade has been made. The building and the machinery will be sold together, or separately to suit purchasers.

II.

GRAIN MILLS,

in a 3 story brick building, 28x40 feet. Two Wheat Mills and one Corn Mill, new and complete with a capacity for grinding 100 bushels of wheat and 100 bushels of corn a day, and can compete in quality of flour with any mills in the State. The mills have had a very large local patronage during the past year. They are driven by a 60 HORSE POWER STEAM ENGINE, improved, of the make of Talbott & Sons, Richmond.
Attached to the engine is also a 60 Saw COTTON GIN and power press, at a safe distance (about 100 feet) in a different lot. The engine has a brick smoke-stack 60 feet high, making the danger from fire the least possible and the rate of insurance very low.

III.

Several well built and handsome residences, with lots and gardens of about 1 acre to each dwelling. They are wooden buildings, 2 stories high, with from 5 to 7 rooms each situated in desirable locations in the village.
Besides these, 4 one acre lots, with cottage buildings of 2 rooms.
TERMS: One third Cash; balance on reasonable time.
A. F. PAGE,
Jan 2-tf Cary, N. C.

These lands are divided into four separate tracts, ranging from 38 to 112 acres each. About 127 acres cleared and in fine farming condition, about all fresh and well adapted to the growth of cotton, wheat, corn, oats, tobacco and field crops generally.
Apex is situated on the R. & A. A. L. R. R., 15 miles from Raleigh, in a healthy and moral community, good schools, churches, &c., in the town.
G. W. ATKINSON.
I also have one three acre lot in the city of Raleigh with dwelling house and some other improvements, for sale.

Opinion of Eminent Dr. H. R. Walton, Annapolis, Md.
Golden's Liebig's Liquid Extract of Beef is a most excellent preparation. It is par excellence. Superior to Cod Liver Oil or anything I have ever used in wasted or impaired constitutions, and extremely beneficial as a preventive of Malarial diseases.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

—Revenue collections yesterday, $8,697.75.

—Milton Nobles did nobly last night.

—The Treasurer received $13,000 in old bonds yesterday.

—The Governor will be absent a few days. He has gone west.

—In the language of the man that used the expression, "Feb's a rouser"

—Messrs. Stronach & Belo will have an important auction sale to-day at 12 o'clock.

—Hon. K. P. Battle, Dr. N. H. D. Wilson, W. S. Ball, Esq., and Richmond Pearson, Esq., are in the city.

—Peace Institute did not keep school yesterday. Captain Burwell gave holiday in honor of his wedding yesterday morning.

—Snyder, Harris, Barrett & Co., of Philadelphia, and the Bay State Shoe and Leather Co., of New York, took out a drummer's license yesterday.

—The London, Liverpool and Globe Insurance Company, represented in this city by Messrs. Cameron, Hay & Co., paid their State taxes yesterday.

—"Silver Threads Among the Gold" is quietly taking its rest. Some time in the distant future it will again be rallied forth as the beauty of beauties.

—Bishop Lyman's lecture—"Mount Sinai and the Holy Land"—which was to have been delivered at Tucker Hall to-night, has been postponed until further notice.

—The Milton Nobles troupe arrived in this city last night at 7½ o'clock, and went from the depot to the Hall, where they performed "A Man of the People" to a crowded house. After the play they left immediately for the depot and boarded a special car for Goldsboro, in order to make connection at that point for Wilmington, in which place they play to-night.

—At the regular annual meeting of the Directors of the North Carolina Home Insurance Company, held at their office in this city on the 4th inst., the following officers were elected for the present year:

President—John Gatling.
Vice President—W. H. Crow
Secretary and Treasurer—W. S. Primrose.
Adjuster and Supervisor—Pulaski Cowper.

The report of the Secretary and Treasurer was submitted, showing the exhibits of the past year, which was most gratifying to the Directors.

—There was a misunderstanding among those interested in the Young Men's Christian Association as to the quantity of wood received a day or two since. It seems that only eighteen cords came over the R. & A. R. R. and not eighteen car loads as stated among the local briefs in the NEWS yesterday. Eighteen car loads of wood make one hundred and eight cords, which would keep about one hundred and eight fires going about five weeks, and the managers of the association desire the correction in order that they may not appear in a false light or pretend to dispense charity that they do not possess.

An Important Personal Item.

Charles S. Prentice, of Toledo, O., went to Paris and thence to England to be treated for Bright's disease, and after the best physicians of both countries had done what they could for him gave up in despair and returned to America to die. Here he received further treatment from other skillful physicians without benefit, and while "listlessly lingering in pain and anguish," he says, heard of the Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, took it, and was completely cured in a few weeks. He gives circumstantial details of his painful experience and astonishing cure, in a long letter to H. H. Warner & Co., which will be forwarded on application.

A High Reputation.

For years the firm of Steele & Price have deservedly had a high reputation for the excellence of their Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder and Special Flavoring Extracts. They have now added a line of Unique Perfumes, rivalling in excellence the perfumes of this or any other country.

Revolutions Never go Backward.

This is especially true when they have genuine merit, such as is found in Patapsco Baking Powder. Housekeepers have only to try this Powder to prove the above motto of the truth of history. Patapsco Baking Powder will never go back on you. It is uniformly good and economical.

What Physicians at Home and Abroad Think of the Seven Springs Iron and Alum Mass.

In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Anæmia, Nervous and Muscular Debility, Nervous and Sick Headache, Dysmenorrhœa, Menorrhagia, Amenorrhœa, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder and such like organic or functional disturbances, I know of no remedy upon which I can rely with more certainty of satisfactory results than the "Seven Springs Mass."

W. F BARR, M. D.,
Abingdon, Va.

I have found no one single remedy to yield such satisfactory results as the "Seven Springs Mass." In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Anæmia, Chlorosis, and for Chronic Eczema, I find it invaluable, associated with appropriate topical treatment.

GEO. T. HARRISON, M. D.,
New York City.

From my experience with the "Iron and Alum Mass," I believe it will prove the best medicine we have in use, for chronic diseases.

G. M. D. PATTERSON, M. D.,
Eaglewood, Texas.

For Dyspepsia, Ulcerations of the Throat, Inflammation of the Neck of the Bladder, Leucorrhœa, etc., the "Seven Springs Mass" seems to act with almost specific effect.

E. O. GRIGSBY,
DeView, Ark.

We could extend this list into the thousands with such testimonials from physicians from every State in the Union, but these are sufficient to indicate its application. The reputation of the remedy is too widely known to waste words upon its character. In ordering from druggists always mention Seven Springs Mass. Price $1 per package or six for $5, sent by mail, postpaid.

Knabe Pianos.

Mr. N. H. Bennett, agent for Wm. Knabe & Co., has another invoice of those celebrated pianos on the road. If you contemplate purchasing, wait and see them. They will be on exhibition at No. 20 Fayetteville St., about Saturday of this week. The best is the cheapest. It is poor policy to spend your money for cheap pianos without any reputation whatever.

Nerve.

It is a great thing to have what is called nerve, and nothing contributes more to the power of physical control than named than Warner's Safe Nervine. It also relieves all kinds of pain, and cures and neuralgia, headache.

"My dear children," said a Sunday School teacher, "the greatest of our heroes, the noblest men, the highest scholars could never tell a lie. Now could any of you tell one?" and the answer "you bet," from a tow-headed youth on the front seat who nearly knocked her spectacles off.

Long Branch Improvements.

The improvements at Long Branch for the ensuing season are on a very extensive scale, and it is evident the place intends to give its young rivals an active competition. The Atlantic Hotel and Howland's are both being enlarged, the iron pier lengthened, and several cottages have been built on the grounds of the West End Hotel intended for families who wish to be exclusive. The railroad and steamboat facilities will be better than ever before, and a regular line of steamers will ply between the iron pier and the city. Everybody at Long Branch is busy and enthusiastic, and all are sanguine that the coming season will be the best that has been recorded for many years.

This useful invention meets a long-felt need for a more convenient method of removing oysters, Potatoes, and other fried food, with greater quickness, and all at once, from the boiling fat in which they have been cooked, and allowing the fat to drain from them while they remain over the fire; thereby getting rid more certainly of the superfluous grease, the objection so often made of the unhealthiness of food cooked in the ordinary frying-pan is done away with.

By detaching the supporter, you have for omelettes and other things for which a drainer is not required, a deeper and better quality of frying-pan than has heretofore been made.
